

Welcome to the Whale Brand.

Offers die. Tactics die. Best practices die.

Brand is eternal.

If Brand isn't the most evergreen asset I've got - it's pretty close.

It's the foundation of every offer I craft and move I make. If there's one thing I want to be strong at, it's that.

Underneath it all, the Likes Ain't Cash Brand was always there.

Your brand should be strong enough so you can pivot to Airbnb expert today and still have people follow you.

There are 5 components that allow for a Whale Brand as I define it:

1. Hear: What calling do you hear?
2. Smell: What do you tolerate and not tolerate?
3. Touch: Which Tools allow you to get the job done?
4. Taste: What's your taste like?
5. See: What does the world look like through your eyes?

Each of these has a post associated with it. We will craft them and we will post them.
